

Please do not weaken the law and impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. We receive enough communications now as it is. Many banks in Indiana would like to impose themselves